

Tesreau's Bears Face Royal Giants To-day

A double header has been arranged for this afternoon at Dyckman Oval, near the Dyckman Street subway station, the Royal Giants, pioneers among the independents, and Jeff Tesreau's Bears meeting in two games.

The games will bring together two teams that have made their mark in local baseball circles and should be productive of a brand of playing that will keep the fans on edge from start to finish.

New York Tribune, New York, NY

Sunday, July 11, 1920, Page 18, Column 5