TO BE HERE TOO

Millville Faces Brooklyn Royal
Giants This Evening and Goes To Atlantic City Thursday.

Millville will try to stop the Brooklyn Royal Giants in a twilight game this evening if the weather permits.

The local team has been going at a rapid clip thus far this season and hopes to give the Royal Giants a good game.

In the effort to stop the colored wizards the local management will have three hurlers ready to go in at any time. Ogden the Swarthmore College ace will be here and will probably start against the Giants. He has been twirling great ball this season. Steinader and Steele will keep warm ready to hurry to his relief.

"Rube" Cashman will be in a Millville uniform this evening. "Rube" played with Cost Accounting last year and with New York Ship this year. He is an infielder with a good sized reputation. He hits often and hard, already having banged out several home runs this season.

Thursday Millville will go to Atlantic City and try conclusions with the Bacharach Giants for the fourth time this season. The series stands 2 and 1 in favor of the resort club and it is admitted that its a tough proposition to wallop Jackson's crowd at Inlet Park.

Millville should have won the last game at Atlantic City and the boys have a perfect right to do it tomorrow.

The Cuban Stars which defeated the Bacharach Giants Monday, are scheduled for a game in Millville Tuesday evening, August 19.
