

NORTHWESTERNS TO TACKLE BLACK SOX

The Northwesterns, with four straight wins to their credit, are booked for a double-header with the Black Sox Sunday at Westport. The Sox have turned in three wins in four starts, and two good games should result Sunday. Hodges, Gardner and Ford will do the pitching for the Sox, with Burrell and Harristone catching. Charlie Spedden, who runs the park at Westport, announces that the new stands will be ready by Sunday.

Baltimore American, Baltimore, MD

Saturday, May 3, 1919, Page 7, Column 5