

WESTERN NEGRO CHAMPS TO PLAY AT POINT BREEZE

The American Giants' baseball team, of Chicago, Ill., have been matched by Jack Roden to meet the two leading negro baseball clubs of this section the latter part of this month. The games will be played in this city on the Point Breeze Park diamond.

The Chicago team is recognized as the negro champions of the West and will meet the Bacharach Giants, of Atlantic City, the eastern champions, in a two-game series for the negro championship of the country, on August 29 and 30.

The American Giants will open their three-day visit by meeting the Peerless Giants, of this city, at the Motordrome, on Tuesday, August 28.
