

AMERICAN GIANTS HERE FOR THREE-GAME SERIES

Rube Foster's World's Cham- pions Open at Point Breeze With All-Stars

Rube Foster and his world's champion colored team, the Chicago American Giants, made their first appearance in Philadelphia in seven years this afternoon at Point Breeze Motordrome, where they were opposed by an all-star team selected from the best colored players now in the East. Many of Foster's team are former favorites in this section. Francis, the little third baseman, is a Philadelphian and gained his experience with the old Philadelphia Giants. Barber, Petway, P. Hill, Lloyd, Duncan and Redding have appeared

Lloyd, pitcher here frequently. Foster's combination has just defeated the strong Bacharach Giants in two games and will line-up in their full strength against the pick of the eastern stars. The batting order of the two teams was as follows:
