

PENN RED CAPS TO PLAY.

Will Tackle Kingsbridge Athletics This Afternoon.

The Pennsylvania Red Caps, a team composed of the leading players of the former Lincoln Stars, will be the opponents of the Kingsbridge Athletics this afternoon at Dyckman Oval, near the Dyckman street subway station. The Red Caps are employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad and have a big following in this city. Langford and Peirce and Schwartz and Heblewaite will be the rival batteries.

The Red Caps two years ago, as members of the Lincoln Stars, ranked among the best independent teams in the country.
