

ROGAN FANS 14 AND WRECKERS WIN IN A WALK

25th Infantry Batters Hammer Brinza and Mashaw to All Corners of Lot

Wilbur Rogan has a sore army. It is very sore. In fact, he can hardly throw. It is so sore that he only fanned 14 of the 1st-32nd batters yesterday afternoon at Mollis field. It is too bad to think that he has a lame wing. If it had been in a sling he might have fanned 27. At any rate the Wreckers won out in the batfest by a score of 16 to 2.

And it was a merry roundelay of hits. The Wreckers did a little Jimmy Valentine work yesterday afternoon and annexed one of the Hea-lani bats, and every man on the team batted with the big ebony bludgeon. Bill Hughes has lost a mighty good bat, and in addition it proves that it isn't always the bat but the player who is responsible for the hitting.

Rogan was greeted by about 1500 fans, and he lived up to expectations. Brinza and Mashaw were excellent bat hitters. Brinza burned them over right across the heart of the plate, which is nothing more than just plain suicide, when the Wreckers are hitting them. He was effective whenever he worked the corners.

The game was close throughout—that is throughout the first three innings—and then came the deluge. And it was some deluge if you should happen to ask. Before the fourth inning was over the Carr squad had taken home five perfectly good runs.

The only features of the game was the hitting of the Wreckers and the fielding of Fagin and Judd. Johnson ambled to the plate six times and chalked up a homer, a triple, a double and two singles, which is pretty fair work for one day. Rogan landed a homer and two singles, and Hawkins gathered a double and two singles.

Maddis was the big wand wielder for the 1st-32nd team, getting a double and triple, Buckland and Coyle also secured two hits each.

Fagin Pulls One

Fagin made the feature play of the day when he raced over to the second sack and grabbed Judd's hard hit ball, and threw the 1st-32nd man out at first. It was one of the prettiest plays seen on a local diamond this year. Judd featured with two beautiful running catches.

An error, a walk, Johnson's double and Goliah's single gave the Wreckers two runs in the first inning. The 1st-32nd scored when Buckland singled, Judd sacrificed and Maddis doubled down the first base line. Neither team scored again until the fourth inning, when the Wreckers turned loose on Brinza.

Fagin, Hawkins, Smith and Rogan singled and then Johnson hit one for a homer. They rested in the next inning. Rogan started things in the sixth when he hit one over the left field fence. Then Koviss started to kick the ball around, and two runs came in. Singles by Hawkins, Johnson and Fagin gave the Wreckers two more in the seventh. Chief, Doyle and Buckland hit Rogan in the seventh, one run coming across the rubber. The Wreckers rested in the eighth. Then singles by Rogan, Moore and Crafton and a triple by Johnson all made with the Healan black bat, gave the Wreckers four runs. The 25th Infantry players are going to put all their bets on the Healanis to win the Regatta.

Coasters Next

Some team has to beat the Wreckers, and it looks as if the Coast Defense team, with their full lineup is the team to do it. That is providing Rogan doesn't pitch with that sore arm of his. In Crumpler and Kelly, the Coast Defense has two of the best pitchers on the islands. They have two good catchers in McGavin and Benham, both good hitters. Bailey, Johnson, Critchfield and Davis make up a crackerjack infield, and McClain, Kelly, Cummings and Stewart ought to show up well in the outfield.
