

CAMDEN TRIUMPHS OVER ROYAL GIANTS

Jerseymen Take Brooklyn
Lads Into Camp in Fast
Game 6 to 2 1

Santon, Visitors' First Baseman Hits
Home Run With One on in the Fourth Round .

In the presence of the largest crowd of the season, Camden A. C. yesterday defeated the Brooklyn Royal Giants by a score of 6 to 2. Although the Giants outbatted Camden, Cotter managed to keep the hits scattered, and the visitors made their only runs in the fourth inning, when Santop hit for a home run with one on base. Betts' fielding and Barr's steal of home in the eighth inning were other features. Cotton fanned ten men.
