

GLOBE TIRE DROPS SERIES TO GIANTS

Brooklyn Royals Trim Tiremak- ers in Deciding Contest--Three Local Pitchers Used

The Brooklyn Royal Giants made at two victories out of three starts yesterday against Tommy O'Hara's Globe Tire outfit at the Prospect Street diamond, the dusky invaders carrying off the long end of 7 to 5 score. Three pitchers, "Lefty" Lloyd, Fritz Gaiser and Danzer, the last named a new recruit, tried to stem the tide of defeat for Globe, but were not equal to the occasion.

Globe got away to a good start and looked to have the contest well in hand with a four-run advantage, but the dark-skinned ball tossers came right back and grabbed the plunder.

In the second inning Andy Werner hit the ball over the left field fence for a home run, but the paths were not populated. Welster duplicated the trick in the third inning under the same conditions.

Morse, who was on the hill for the Giants, was rather soft picking for the Globe boys, but Harvey, who finished out, had Globe tied in knots. Lloyd labored on the hill at the outset for Globe but was later relieved by Fritz Gaiser. Fritz later gave way to Danzer. Dick Hutchinson dropped an easy fly in the fifth inning that paved the way for Globe's defeat and he was promptly derricked by Manager O'Hara and Boice was sent in to bat for him in the sixth.

Billy Lloyd was the fielding hero, starting two chain lightning double plays that choked off visiting rallies. Both teams did some pretty fielding, but the Giants had the class in the long run and won the series of three games. The score:
