

THIRTEEN-INNING CONTEST WON BY THE A. B. C.'S

Local Team Eliminates Chicago Giants From Race For Colored Championship.

The A. B. C.'s and the American Giants engaged in a great thirteen-inning contest Thursday, July 22, at Northwestern park, the local champs winning, 7 to 6. Both teams fielded fast, the A. B. C.'s going the route without a misplay. Hill, of the visitors, slammed out two home runs again. It made four straight games for the A. B. C.'s over the Giants, eliminating them from playing a final series with the Lincoln Stars of New York for the colored championship of America. The score:
