

RICHMOND INDEPENDENTS TO PLAY CUBAN X-GIANTS

The Richmond Independents, a local colored nine, will play the Cuban Giants of New York, a series of three games at Broad Street Park, beginning on Monday. The Giants are one of the best known colored teams in the country, and the games are expected to draw large crowds. Seats will be reserved for white patrons. The games will be called at 4:30 o'clock. The following is the line-up:

Cuban Giants—Tells, shortstop; Randolph, second base; Green, left field; Cooper, first base; Falkenberg, center field; Wade, third base; Barnes, catcher; Smith, pitcher; Brown, pitcher and right field; Sykes, pitcher and right field.

Independents—Snapper, second base; Carter, shortstop; Cheatham, left field; Garrett, first base; Hopkins, right field; Blunt, center field; Jackson, third base; Dungle, catcher; Kenney, catcher; Murrill, pitcher; Brown, pitcher, and Thomas, utility.

Richmond Times-Dispatch, Richmond, Virginia

Friday, May 14, 1915, Page 9, Column 2