

CHICAGO UNION GIANTS PLAY STORZ THIS WEEK

Now that the Rourkes have departed to cast their fortunes abroad, Fred Bradford's Stars will appear at the Rourke yard and on Saturday and Sunday the Chicago Union Giants, the pioneer colored organization, and considered the most formidable of them all now on the road, will be entertained.

The Storz have created a lot of interest in their clashes with the colored traveling teams, as evidenced by the large assemblages that have attended the games in the past.

Manager Bradford has annexed Eddie Roben of the defunct Grand Island club to succeed "Doc." Welch, who has retired from the game.
