

ROYAL AMERICANS DEFEAT THE FAST PICKWICKS.

The hard hitting Royal American baseball club, of Kansas City, defeated the fast Pickwicks in a hard fought and exciting 12-inning game Sunday at Schmelzer's Park, by the score of 8 to 5. Features of the game were the hitting and fielding of Davis at third base for the Royals and the work of Smith and Love in the outfield. Daddy Freeman pitched a wonderful game, letting the visitors down with 3 hits. Next Sunday, June 13th, the Royal Americans play the Fords at Association Park.
