NOTES OF THE GAME.

There was plenty of action in the series just played.

Three or four from the Cubans are now for Uncle Ruben.

Clark to DeMoss to Taylor stopped several Cuban rallies—this trio is hard to beat.

It was too much Johnson Monday and Tuesday, "Dicta" and Tom both winning their games.

Charleston's home run smash in Sunday's game netted the hard hitting soldier ten dollars; it fairly rained silver coin.

Capt. Figarola ordered his men from the field Monday on account of a close play at third, the diamond was filled with players and officers before play was resumed.

Things looked bad for the home team Wednesday in the seventh, with the enemy on third and second, one down and the slugging Torenti at bat. Ben Taylor and Dismukes held a council of war, decided to pass Torenti, which was a lucky move, as Pedroso hit into a double play.
