

A. B. C.'s TRIM GUNTHERS.

Manager Taylor's Champs Win Game in Third Session—Charleston and Shively Hit for Three Bases.

(By "Young" Knox.)

With Chareston, the "slugging soldier" back in center field, and Gordon looking after the right garden, the A. B. C.'s defeated the Chicago Gunthers at Federal Park last Sunday before a large crowd. "Smiling" Dismukes was master of the situation at all times and would have shut the Chi boys out but for two bad pegs by Powell and himself. Charleston and Clark starred with the bat. Score:

In six of the last eight innings the Gunthers went out in order. Powell, the reliable, broke up the game with a single, with none out.

NOTES OF THE A. B. C's.

(By "Young" Knox.)

Here's to you, Mr. C. F. Taylor.
You're the best in the business.

Jeffries showed Tuesday that he is not all in yet. He pitched a wonderful game.

Ben Taylor, is certainly playing a wonderful game these days. Hitting the ball hard, too.

When Powell overthrew first base in the sixth "Bill" Bailey and Sid Cowden nearly threw a fit.

"Uncle" Rube Foster and his American Giants, of Chicago, open a five-game series with the A's at Federal Park tomorrow.

The A's made five errors Sunday.
They want to get all of them out of their system by the time "Rube" and his night warriors arrive.

The A's have a wonderful ball player in Gordon, lately of the Brooklyn Stars. He is a heavy hitter, and fast as lightning on the bases.

Ordinarily, Sunday's game should have been a shut-out, as "Dizzy" pitched an excellent game. Support was just a little weak; that's all.

Lafferty, who pitched for the Gunther's Sunday, uses some sort of dope on th ball, but it took more than he possessed to stop those slugging A. B.
C's.

Charleston, the heavy hitting outfielder, is back in the fold again.
Charleston has gained the name of the "Benny Kauf of the semi-profs." Charleston made four hits out of four times up Sunday. Going some.

Powell should see that his lady friend gets her "feed" money before he leaves home. It's awful embarrassing for a young lady to come right up in front of another young lady and tell you she's hungry. That will never do, Russell.

The writer was presented a season pass by Mr. Bowser, for which he extends his thanks. Although I have always had the privilege of going in, this is the first time I have ever had a pass in my own name. Many thanks, Mr. T. A. B.

Shiveley pulled one over on Geiser, of the Gunthers, in the third inning of Sunday's game, when he singled, and instead of stopping at first, he kept right on going. Geiser, the left fielder, was so excited he threw the ball wild, and Shiveley landed safely on second. That's base ball.

Clark has been in many a mixup on the ball field, but I'll wager he never was as "jammed" as he was Monday night when he got his dates mixed, and while he was standing in front of the Columbia theater talking to one of his browns, his "steady" came along and she didn't do anything but slap "Monty" on the jaw. That won't do, old boy.
