

LARGE CROWD SEES BUSH'S STARS WIN.

Many Fans Watch Big Leaguers Defeat A. B. C.'s at Federal Park, 5 to 2. Dauss and Boehler Work on the Pitch.

The All-Stars had too much trouble with the A. B. C.'s at Federal Park and the colored champs won for the count. The pitcher, George Dauss, of the All-Stars, hurled six innings for the win and was found for only one run, one hit and the other a single. George Boehler, also of the All-Stars, pitched the last three rounds and was found for a single. The big crowd had the A. B. C.'s guess-est of them went out on each hit to left.
