

ROYAL GIANTS AND CUBANS IN 4-GAME SERIES

Rain stopped the Poughkeepsie Cubans-Royal Giants at Riverview Field yesterday afternoon, but, provided Mr. Weatherman permits, the same teams will battle today, tomorrow, Thursday and Friday. The Royals come here fresh from victories over the Lincoln Giants and are confident of taking the measure of the locals.

Yesterday's downpour helped the visitors, as they will be able to send "Stringbean" Williams, their star hurler, to the mound. Williams is an elongated moundsman and is considered the best colored pitcher in the game today. Sunday last he was pitted against "Cyclone Joe" Williams, the star of the Lincoln Giants, and much to the surprise of the dopesters the "elongated one" was returned the winner.

Dr. Henriquez will depend on Mudoz to pitch the locals to victory.
He has not worked since Thursday last and should be in great form. All games will be called at Riverview Field at 3:30 o'clock.
