CALVO AND HUNGO STAR WITH WILLOW

In a contest that was marked by free hitting, the Cubans triumphed over the Royal Giants of Brooklyn at Riverview Field yesterday afternoon by a score of 9-4. The score is no indication of how badly the visitors were beaten. The locals slammed out twelve hits for a total of sixteen bases and had they tried they might have had twenty tallies. Mudoz started the contest for the locals, but after getting an eight-run lead retired in favor of Barranda.

"Stringbean" Williams, the star hurler of the colored aggregation, started on the hill, but after pitching five balls and passing Romonach, he retired. The pitching burdens were taken up by "Red" Smith, late of the Lincoln Stars. His offerings were hit to all corners in this frame and the locals scored five times before a man was retired.

In the fourth the locals started again and in this frame several hits, sprinkled with a couple of boots, gave the locals three more runs.

Mudoz retired from the contest in the fifth after allowing the Royals four hits. Barranda took up the firing line duties and was touched up for six hits in four innings. It was only due to good support on the part of his team mates that the score was kept down.

Calvo and Hungo starred at the bat for the locals. The former scored two doubles and a single in five times at bat, while the latter made a double and two singles in as many trips to the plate.

Handy and Despret played well for the visitors. The same teams will play again this afternoon, tomorrow and Friday. The game tomorrow afternoon will be called at 4:15 o'clock. The box score:
