

LINCOLN GIANTS VS. ROYALS.

The Lincoln Giants will leave their home grounds in Harlem this Sunday for a trip to Wallace's Ridgewood Grounds, Halsey street and Wyckoff avenue, where they will play a double header with the Royal Giants. Three weeks ago the Royals twice beat the Lincolns, but on that occasion, the Harlem crew was somewhat crippled. The Lincolns feel confident they can turn the tables this Sunday. Redding and Williams will pitch for the Lincolns, and Lefty Harvey and Stringbean Williams will hurl for the Royals.

The Sun, New York, NY

Friday, September 8, 1916, Page 12, Column 5