

AT RIDGEWOOD.

The Royal Giants scored a double victory at Wallace's Ridgewood Grounds yesterday afternoon. In the first game of the double header the Royals defeated the New Londons by 8 to 2. In the closing argument the Royals trounced the Bushwicks by 3 to 0.

The second contest was a hot battle all the way between Girard, the Bushwick pitcher, and Williams, on the mound for the Royals. The Bushwick man had the better of it, but got poor support in the field, five errors being piled up behind him. The Royals got to Girard for only three hits, while the Bushwicks collected six. Harvey gave the New Londons only four hits. The scores:
