

Doubleheader on Olympic Field.

To-morrow at Olympic Field, 136th Street and Fifth Avenue, the Lincoln Giants will play their old rivals, the Royal Giants, another doubleheader. In the first games of the series the Royals won both after hard battles. In the first game at 1.30 P. M., Cannon Ball Dick Redding will be on the slab for the Royal Giants, while Cyclone Joe Williams for the Lincolns will oppose him. In the final game Big Tom Williams will be the slabster for the Royal Giants, while the Lincoln Giants will have their spitball artist, McLaughlin, on the firing line.

Red Caps Out to Repeat.

The Red Caps, who defeated Billy Jordan's Kingsbridge team in a well played contest at Dyckman Oval, near the Dyckman Street subway station, last Sunday, 2 to 1, will try to repeat to-morrow, when the teams meet in a return game. Andy Coakley and Harvey again will be the rival pitchers. Last Sunday Earle's homer beat Coakley. Payne, Webster, Kimbro, Handy, Cooper, Fuller and Thomas will be in the Red Caps' line-up.

The Evening World, New York, NY

Saturday, June 1, 1918, Page 8, Column 8