

WILLIAMS OUT TO REPEAT.

Will Try to Duplicate No Hit Feat Against Shipbuilders.

The Eagles of The Bronx have taken their place among the leading semi-professional baseball clubs in this section and will tackle another hard proposition this afternoon, when they will be featured with the Lincoln Giants in one of the two games at Olymple Field in Harlem. Billy Gibson, the boxing impresario, is handling the Eagles. The team's rooters will parade to the grounds in fifteen autos. In the other contest the Lincoln Giants will go after the scalps of the Downey Shipbuilders, who have a minor league lineup. Holbourn and Joe Williams will pitch the feature game. Williams last Sunday pitched a no hit no run contest.
