

AMERICAN GIANTS WIN.

Beat Treat 'Em Roughs, 2 to 1
and 9 to 7—Perritt in Debut.

The American Giants of Chicago, champions of the middle West, started their Eastern invasion yesterday with a double victory over the Treat 'Em Roughs yesterday at Dyckman Oval. In the first game the Chicagoans carried off the honors in a duel between Stringbean Williams and Jeff Tesreau, by 2 to 0. Tesreau allowed three hits and Williams gave the locals only one.

In the second game Pol Perritt, former Giant, made his debut in the semi-pro ranks. Both he and Jimmy Clinton pitched for the locals, who were downed in eleven innings, 9 to 7. To-day the American Giants will play the Hilldale team of Philadelphia at Dyckman Oval; the game will start at 4:30.
