

---

ROYALS VS. LINCOLNS.

Old time rivalry, such as has not been seen at a local semi-pro field in several months, will be revived on Labor Day at Dexter Park, near Cypress Hills "L," when the Royal Giants and the Lincoln Giants clash in a double header. For almost ten years these teams have met annually in a Labor Day double header, and to date the Lincolns have a slight edge on their opponents. Last year the Labor Day games both went into extra innings, the Lincolns winning the first in fourteen innings, 3 to 1, and the Royals taking the second in twelve, 4 to 3. The teams are evenly matched.

---

The Sun, New York, NY

Sunday, August 31, 1919, Page 20, Column 8