

OLD RIVALS WILL MEET.

Lincoln and Royal Giants Play
To-day at Olympic Field.

The fourth of the series of double headers between the Lincoln Giants and the Royal Giants will be played this afternoon at Olympic Field in Harlem. The old rivals are even on the eight games thus far decided.

The Lincolns will send Williams and Archer to the mound, and while the former is going especially well there is no guarantee that he will be able to hold the Royal batsmen in check. They have been going great guns with the willow in their last six games.

The Royal Giants' pitchers, Thomas and Treadwell, have been specially primed for to-day's tussle.

The Sun, New York, NY

Sunday, September 14, 1919, Page 25, Column 3