

FINAL GAME OF SERIES.

The last games in the series between the Bushwicks, champions of Brooklyn, and the Royal Giants will be played Sunday afternoon at Dexter Park, near the Cypress Hills "L." To date the teams have played ten games and the Bushwicks have won six. In their last two contests the Bushwicks won each game by a score of 10 to 8. The teams are evenly matched and good contests are assured. Kenyon and Brookes will pitch for the Royals and Spiers and Williams for the home nine.

CALDWELL TO PITCH.

The Lincoln Giants will be seen in action against the All-Leaguers again next Sunday in a double header at Olympic Field, 136th street and Fifth avenue. The All-Leaguers yesterday obtained the services of Pitcher Ray Caldwell of Cleveland, Herb Thor-mahlen of the Yankees and Pitcher Causey, former Giant. With these three major league hurlers in line, the All-Leaguers should be able to engage the locals in a nip and tuck tussle.

The Sun, New York, NY

Tuesday, September 30, 1919, Page 21, Columns 7 & 8