

EMPEY ARRANGES SERIES.

Guy Empey's Treat 'Em Roughs will begin another series with the Bacharach Giants of Atlantic City, who were signed for a number of games, the first of which will be played Sunday. In their previous games the fans who packed the stands were treated to thrilling baseball and it was at the request of the park's patrons that Empey reengaged the Jerseyites. Pol Perritt, Jeff Tesreau and Jimmy Clinton will pitch for the locals and opposed to them will be Dick Redding and Wickware.

CUBANS BACK IN HARLEM.

Two games that are sure to pack the capacity of Olympic Field, 136th street and Fifth avenue, are booked for this Sunday, when the Lincoln Giants and the Cuban Stars of Havana clash in the fifth of their series of double headers. To date the teams have an even break. The Cubans are due to return shortly to Havana, where they are entered in the Cuban National Baseball League, hence this Sunday's game probably will be their last in this city this season.

The Sun, New York, NY

Friday, September 19, 1919, Page 19, Columns 2 and 4