

Athletic Carnival When Tennessee Rats Come

The Tennessee Rats will clash with the Brandeis Stores Saturday and Sunday at Rourke park. This is the same aggregation that made a remarkable record of forty-five straight victories last season, two of the games being won from the All Nations. Their defeat of three games by the Brandeis was a hard blow to Manager Brown, and he immediately got busy and bolstered up his club by strengthening three weak positions, and on the arrival of the new material proceeded to clean up everything in sight. Saturday's game will start at 3:15.

Sunday's game will be one of the features in conjunction with the big athletic carnival, consisting of wrestling, base ball, tug of war, shadow wrestling and other classy events. Manager Bradford of the Brandeis

Stores has signed Frank Potach, star slabman of the Ramblers, and, owing to the demand of Potach's followers that Frank be used in Sunday's game in order to give them all an opportunity to see him work in semi-pro company, will give him a chance to try his fast ball against the Rats.
