

LOGAN SQUARE NINE HOME

Philadelphia's Champions to Meet Bacharach Giants Tomorrow

After a successful invasion of South Jersey, where all leading teams of that section were beaten, the Logan Square nine will finish its hard schedule on the Strawbridge & Clothier field.

On tomorrow afternoon the independent champions will meet the Bacharach Giants, named in honor of Atlantic City's Mayor. This nine won fifty games at the shore before the Logan Square made its appearance there.

After losing the first match by one run, Billy Faulkner's band took the next game by a like margin. Frank McNichol, of the noted family of athletes, will twirl against the Atlantic City champions. Charley White will take care of the receiving.
