RUBE'S FELLOWS TAKE ALL OF THE GAMES—FOUR STRAIGHT.

Ours A. B. C.'s went down in inglorious defeat last week in a series of four games, beginning Monday and ending on Thursday. The weather was ideal, cool and clear, seeming particularly to agree with Rube's folks, judging by the way they swatted the ball and ran the bases.

Good crowds attended during the series, a great crowd being present at the closing game on Thursday, when the two clubs played a benefit game for the Lincoln Hospital.

The A. B. C.'s have been playing good ball from the beginning of the season. Indeed, we here thought they were playing top notch ball, but one will suppose that it was because they had not met the right club. Taylor's fellows worked like Trojans, but all to no purpose. Rube's big men did practically as they pleased, taking all the run out of the local team.

But the event, after all, was a great treat. To score with such a team as the American Giants is something. Foster's team will measure up with the best teams in the country. This means that the A. B. C.'s were playing league ball. Many of the spectators did not know this, consequently some were inclined to scoff at the "poor downtrodden A. B. C.'s."

McGEHEE AFRICAN TIGERS SHUT OUT THE LITTLE ROCK ALCOS, 4 TO 0.

McGEHEE, Ark., June 18.—The Tigers easily defeated the Alcos, with only one man reaching third base. The Alcos play better ball than some, but the Tigers play the best of all colored clubs, barring none but the paralyzed.

In today's game the spectators very quickly came to the conclusion that the Alcos were outclassed from start to finish. The game today was Pitcher Winston's trial for life, but by him being reinforced by eight of the best baseball players in the world, Captain Darden agreed to let him have a new trial as a pitcher. Summary:

Home run—Ireland. Three-base hit—Williams. Two-base hit—Ireland. Singles —Stanfield, Dardén, Lylla, Williams and Taylor. Batteries: McGehee African Tigers, Winston and Devil; Little Rock Al-cos, Young and Ishaman. Umpire, Burton. Time, 2:10.
