

BOWERS' EASTERNS AND ST. LOUIS GIANTS WILL PLAY A SERIES OF GAMES DURING K. OF P. ENCAMPMENT.

In connection with completed arrangements for the Supreme Lodge K. of P., the base ball contingent is also prepared. The famous St. Louis Giants and Bowers' Easterns, champions of the Ohio State Colored League, will entertain the many thousand visitors at the American Association Park August 18 and 19. The First and Fourth Regimental Bands of St. Louis will give band concerts prior to the opening of the two games, also will give a street parade.

Admirers of the two teams are loud in their praise of the arrangements for the greatest games ever indulged in by popular teams during this convention. Manager Bowers, of the Easterns, and his assistant, Billy Lewis, are daily putting their men through hard work, prior to the crucial test with the St. Louis boys.

The promoters and originators of the baseball feature, Doc Fasset and King Hughes, have left no stone unturned for the success of the feature. Much secrecy is maintained as to what batteries will be in evidence for the two teams. The usual line up for the Easterns will no doubt prevail with the exception of a switch of the battery, while Manager Mills, of the St. Louis crowd, is mum on his plans.

In the coming practice game Sunday, August 15, the Columbus team will cross bats with the Xenia All Stars. It will be remembered the Easterns once met their Waterloo at the hands of the Greene county boys.

Realizing that the St. Louis contingent is one of the strongest aggregations of ball players they have yet went against, the coming game with Xenia will probably serve as an elimination test.

This being the first opportunity that colored professional ball players have been permitted to play at the American Association Park, thousands of patrons will take advantage of the occasion to witness the two games on this fast field, Neil Park.
