

CUBANS VS. ROYALS.

The Cuban Stars, one of the best teams ever sent up to these shores from Havana, will be seen in action at Wallace's Ridgewood Grounds, Halsey street and Wyckoff avenue, Brooklyn, to-morrow. The boys from the Pearl of the Antilles will play the Royal Giants in the first game of a double header, and the winner of that contest will face the Bushwicks in the final tilt. Sensational fielding is the leading asset of the team and is sure to make a hit with the Ridgewood fans. Lefty Harvey will pitch for the Royals.

PITCHING DUEL EXPECTED.

When Art Roamer, who recently pitched a no-hit no-run game in Elizabethport, opposes Cylone Joe Williams on the mound in the game between the crack Pittsfield nine and Lincoln Giants at Olympic Field, 126th street and Fifth avenue, to-morrow, Harlem fans are likely to be treated to a keen pitching tilt. Both hurlers rank high in the semi-pro field. Roamer has many shut-out victories to his credit. He has a big following and is sure to receive a big reception. In the first game the Chesters, another fast local nine, will be pitted against the Lincoln's. Redding will pitch for the home team.

The Sun, New York, NY

Saturday, August 5, 1916, Page 10, Columns 1 and 2