

RIDGEWOOD CONTESTS.

Cuban Stars, Philly Giants and Bushwicks in Twin Bill.

Wallace's Ridgewood Grounds, Halsey street and Wyckoff avenue, Brooklyn, will be the scene of a double header this Sunday in which three crack teams will play. The first game will bring together the Cuban Stars and the Philadelphia Giants, and the winner of that contest will clash with the Bushwicks in the final tilt.

The Cuban Stars are playing at a whirlwind clip and if past performances are to be taken into consideration the team should triumph over the Giants and enter the final game. Last Sunday the Cubans thrilled a big crowd at Olympic Field, where the team played an eleven inning game with the Lincoln Giants, a homer by Williams ending the contest.

The Philly Giants early this season played at Ridgewood, where they annexed both ends of a double header.
