
Kansas City Royal Giants and Kansas City, Kansas, Giants Have Consolidated

At last the baseball war in Kansas City has come to a happy ending. Manager G. W. Walden of the Kansas City Royal Giants and Jack Johnson of the Kansas City, Kansas, Giants have at last got together and will give Kansas City the strongest baseball team she has ever had. The best material has been selected from both teams and as can be seen from the line up, Kansas City is going to be a genuine contender for a place in Negro baseball. The team is being backed by some of the leading business Negroes of Kansas City, who will use their influence to see that all games are handled on a high class business basis and that they will be worthy of attendance by our very best citizens. The line up is as follows: 1 base, B. Turner; 2 base, Ringo; 3 base, Jim Norman; short stop, Asher Jackson; left field, Tom Stearns; center field, Robert Boone; right field, Jim Lynner; catchers, Terry and S. Travis; pitchers, McNair,

Bad Eye (George Russell) and Rube Washington; Jack Johnson, manager and captain; Coney Robinson, utility. Managers wishing games got busy. Headquarters 1005 Mc-Coo street. Home grounds, Shelley Park. Mr. J. W. Weaver, booking agent, will be glad to hear from all teams wishing games in Kansas City

Topeka Plaindealer, Topeka, KA

Friday Morning, March 1, 1912, Page 1, Column 6