

SUNDAY BALL GAMES.

George Browne's Washington United States League team, still intact, will play the Lincoln Giants at Olympic Field, One Hundred and Thirty-sixth street and Fifth avenue. Browne will be in right field for the visitors. In the opening game at 1.30 P. M. the Lincolns, with Redding on the firing line, will face the Allentown team.

The second of the big semi-professional games will be played at Washington Park, Brooklyn, the home of the Superbas. The Washington Parks, the home team, will have the Plainfields of New Jersey for opponents.

Manager Driscoll of the Hoboken team has signed Steve White, formerly of Princeton and the Red Sox, to pitch for the Hobokens against the Cuban Giants at the St. George Cricket Grounds, Hoboken. In the opening game at 2 P. M. the Newark Colored Giants will tackle the O. L. G. team.

Evening World, New York, NY

Saturday, May 25, 1912, Page 7, Column 6