
Giants Play Baltimore Team.

The semi-pro game booked for tomorrow at Union League Park between the Washington Giants and the Baltimore Weldon Giants should prove a hot contest, as the two teams are great rivals. Tomorrow week the local Giants will play in New York city against the world's colored champions, the Lincoln Giants, the game booked here with the Royals being postponed. The following Sunday they play here against the Cherokee Indians.

Tomorrow's game will be a double-header, the first contest starting at 2 o'clock sharp.
