

Mr. William Binga, the veteran ball player, has left the Gophers. On account of bad management they have had a disastrous season — and the players are much dissatisfied. Baseball is a business and needs good management.

Mr. Irving Williams would have brought the Gophers out winner, and kept all dates. Irving knows his worth, and wants pay for his services, but he could not get his price and there was no team.

The Twin City Star, Minneapolis, MN

Saturday, August 19, 1911 Page 1, Column 3