

Rube Foster's American Giants are running away with the teams on the Pacific coast, in the winter league. The time is not far distant when the fans will wake up to the fact that Negroes can play just as much ball as any one else when given the chance.

The Monitor, Omaha, NE

Saturday, November 20, 1915, Page 7, Column 3