

Good Games for Olympic Field.

What promise to be two exciting games of baseball will be the double-header to be played at the Olympic Field, One Hundred and Thirty-seventh street and Fifth avenue, to-morrow. The Lincoln Giants, the great colored team of balltossers, will meet the strong Ironsides of Newark in the first tussle, while in the second game the All-Nationals will try and put a check to the great winning streak of the Lincoln Giants.

The Evening World, New York, NY

Saturday, May 13, 1911, Page 8, Column 8