

SUNDAY BASEBALL GAMES.

The Suburbans will have to hustle at Suburban Oval, Sixteenth street and Gravesend avenue, Brooklyn, in order to defeat the Elizabeth Stars. The Jersey players have made a great record this season. Manager Joe Joyce will send Ortleb or Sibley to the firing line for the visitors.

The Havana Red Sox, playing as the home team, will line up against the American Nationals at Dexter Park, Jamaica avenue and Drew street, Brooklyn. Parks and Jones will be the battery for the Havanas.

At Marquette Field, Second avenue and Tenth street, Brooklyn, the crack St. Mary's Club will play the Marquettes. The Marquettes have been strengthened by the signing of Spires to play third base. Walsh and Roche will be the home battery.

A double-header will be played to-morrow at Olympic Field. In the first game the Lincoln Giants will play the Yonkers team and in the second the Philadelphia Professionals will oppose the Lincoln Giants. Wickmore will pitch for "the Giants."

The Evening World, New York, NY

Saturday, July 8, 1911, Page 6, Column 2