

SUNDAY BASEBALL GAMES.

The Lincoln Giants, the strong colored team of balltossers, will figure in another important double-header at Olympic Field. In the first game they will go against the Easton team of the Pennsylvania League, while in the second tussle they will have for their opponents the Philadelphia Professionals, who played them such a thrilling game two weeks ago.

Finn, the Connecticut pitcher, will pitch for the Metropolitans against the Plainfield club at Lenox Oval. In the early game the Spectrons and Outlooks of the Bronx League will meet in a scheduled game.

Joe Reydell's Loughlin Lyceum team will play the Hanover F. C. of Glendale at Loughlin Oval, Jackson street and Kingsland avenue, Brooklyn. Both teams will have out their full strength.

At Saratoga Park, Broadway and Halsey street, Brooklyn, Joe Wall's All Leaguers will meet the Ryder club instead of Loughlin Lyceum. The Ryders will have out their regular team.

The St. Brendan's Lyceum team will line up against the New York Colored Stars at St. Brendan's Oval, Coney Island avenue and Avenue K, Brooklyn.

The McNulty semi-professional baseball team will play the Haverstraw Club at McNulty Field, One Hundred and Forty-ninth street and Eighth avenue, to-morrow. Slocum, the young twirler from Plainfield, will be on the firing line for the McNultys. In the early game the Independents of the Bronx will play the West Harlems. The first game will start at 2 P. M.

The Evening World, New York, NY

Saturday, July 22, 1911, Page 7, Column 2