

To-Morrow's Schedule of Ball Games.

The strong Lincoln Giants, who have lost few games so far this season, will take part in another double-header at Olympic Field to-morrow. In the first game the Giants will play the strong Haverstraw team, while in the second tussle the Loughlin Lyceum team will be the Lincoln Giants' opponents.

What promises to be an all-star attraction is carded for Connor's Field, One Hundred and Forty-second street and Lenox avenue, to-morrow. The Royal Giants will appear in a big double-header, and there is sure to be some action. The first game, at 2 P. M., will be with the strong Commonwealth team of Providence, and at 4 P. M. the Giants will battle with the Easton, Pa., aggregation.

Meyerrose Park, Covert avenue L station, Ridgewood, will be the scene to-morrow of the second game between The Bronx Athletics and the Ridgewoods, for the 1911 semi-pro championship of greater New York. The Bronxians won the title last year and now are fighting to retain it.

In the first game of the series played last Sunday at Bronx Oval, the Ridgewoods won, 4 to 2, but the Athletics are not disconcerted at the defeat, and say they will come back. This contest will be the feature of a double-header, the first game of which will be played by the Pittsburg Giants and the Paramounts.

There will be a new deal to-morrow at McNulty Field, One Hundred and Forty-ninth street and Eighth avenue, where Tom Durkin has arranged a triple-header. That's going some, even for Durkin. In the first game at 12 o'clock the West Harlems will play the Belmonts; in the second game at 2 o'clock the All Collegiates will tackle the All New Yorks, and in the third game at 4 o'clock the winner of the second game will line up against the McNultys. Slocum and Seamon will be in the points for Durkin's team.

The second and third contests of the series of nine games between those crack Cuban teams, the Cuban Stars and the All Cubans, will be staged to-morrow at Bronx Oval, One Hundred and Sixty-third street and Southern Boulevard. Last Sunday at Ridgewood the Stars defeated the All Cubans in the first two games, and to-morrow the beaten team will be out for revenge.
