

SUNDAY BASEBALL GAMES.

The Lincoln Giants and the Cuban Stars will play the second game of their five game series at Olympic Field. The Cuban Stars won the first game and the Lincolns are determined to beat them in this one. Two good semi-professional teams will meet in the first game.

Jack Kleinow has been signed to catch for the Metropolitans at Lenox Oval. Kleinow will appear against the New London team of Connecticut. In the preliminary the St. Charles team will play the Yorkvilles.

The feature attraction of a big double-header at McNulty Field will be a game between the fast In-er-Seals and the McNulty team. In the early game the West Harlems will play the Falcon A. C.

Clark Griffith's Cincinnati Reds will be the attraction at Loughlin Oval, Jackson street and Kingsland avenue, Brooklyn, where they will play the Loughlin Lyceum Club. The Reds will have out their full team.

The work of the Bronx Athletics is out out for them at Bronx Oval, where they will play the Pittsburg Giants in the first game of a double-header and the Poughkeepsies in the second game.

The attraction at Suburban Oval, Sixteenth and Gravesend avenues, Brooklyn, will be the Ironsides of Newark, one of the few teams to defeat the Lincoln Giants this season.

The Evening World, New York, NY

Saturday, August 26, 1911, Page 6, Column 6