

Sunday Baseball Games

THERE will be two important games of ball played at the Olympic Field, One Hundred and Thirty-Fifth street and Fifth avenue, the Lincoln Giants, the champion colored team of balltossers, meeting the strong Jersey City Club of the Eastern League in a doubleheader. This will be the first time the Lincolns have met a major league ball club. Doescher and Kissinger will pitch for Jersey City, while Redding will do the twirling for the Lincoln Giants. The first game will begin at 1:30 P. M.

The Newark Stars, with "Dummy" Deegan in the box, will play the Suburbans at Suburban Oval, Sixteenth and Gravesend avenues, Brooklyn. Ortleb and Connelly will be in the points for the home team.

Manager Hussey has another big double header scheduled at Meyerrose Park, Covert avenue "L" station, Ridgewood. The Philadelphia Giants will oppose the Royal Giants in the early engagement at 1:45 p. m., while the winner will tackle the Ridgewoods at 3:45 p. m.

The Evening World, New York, NY

Saturday, September 30, 1911, Page 7, Columns 2 and 3