

SUNDAY BASEBALL GAMES

The Lincoln Giants, the champion colored team, will play an all-star team of major league ball players at Olympic Field. Walter Johnson, the strikeout king, and regarded as one of the best twirlers in this country, will pitch for the all-leaguers, with Charley Street behind the bat. Redding will do the pitching for the Lincolns. Two strong semi-professional teams will meet in the preliminary game, at 1.30 P. M.

The New Lots A. C. will play Rochester, champions of the Eastern League, at New Lots Oval, New Lots road and Linwood street. Batch, Simon, Seymour, Daly and all the champion's stars will appear. The Havana Red Sox will be the attraction in the afternoon. Morning game called at 10.30.

The Evening World, New York, NY

Saturday, October 14, 1911, Page 6, Column 4