

SPORTING.

Cyclone Joe Williams, for the Giants and Lefty Pangburn, of the Gophers, (Star hurdlers of their respective teams) will be the feature of the opening game. "Rat Johnson" may catch Williams, and Armstrong will hold the famous "No hit Davis, Bobby Marshall, the Gopher 1st Sacker, and Wallace, the "King of infielders", are also star players. The Gophers have secured for this season a valuable addition to their "Classy pitching staff", the Ex-University of Ill's Star, Louis Johnson, and although Johnson (Rat) and Wallace are now with the visitors, the home teams maintains their usual strength, with their reserve which manager Williams has secured.

Why is it that they have not selected a colored umpire for this series, or one of each race! They really need two, and "photo-decisions" are up to date in games of this class—There are colored men on hand, who are equal to the task. Billy Williams of St. Paul, or Alex Irwin of Minneapolis. Get a colored umpire! They'll let him live.

SPECIAL TRAIN FROM CHICAGO.

Will arrive Sunday morning.

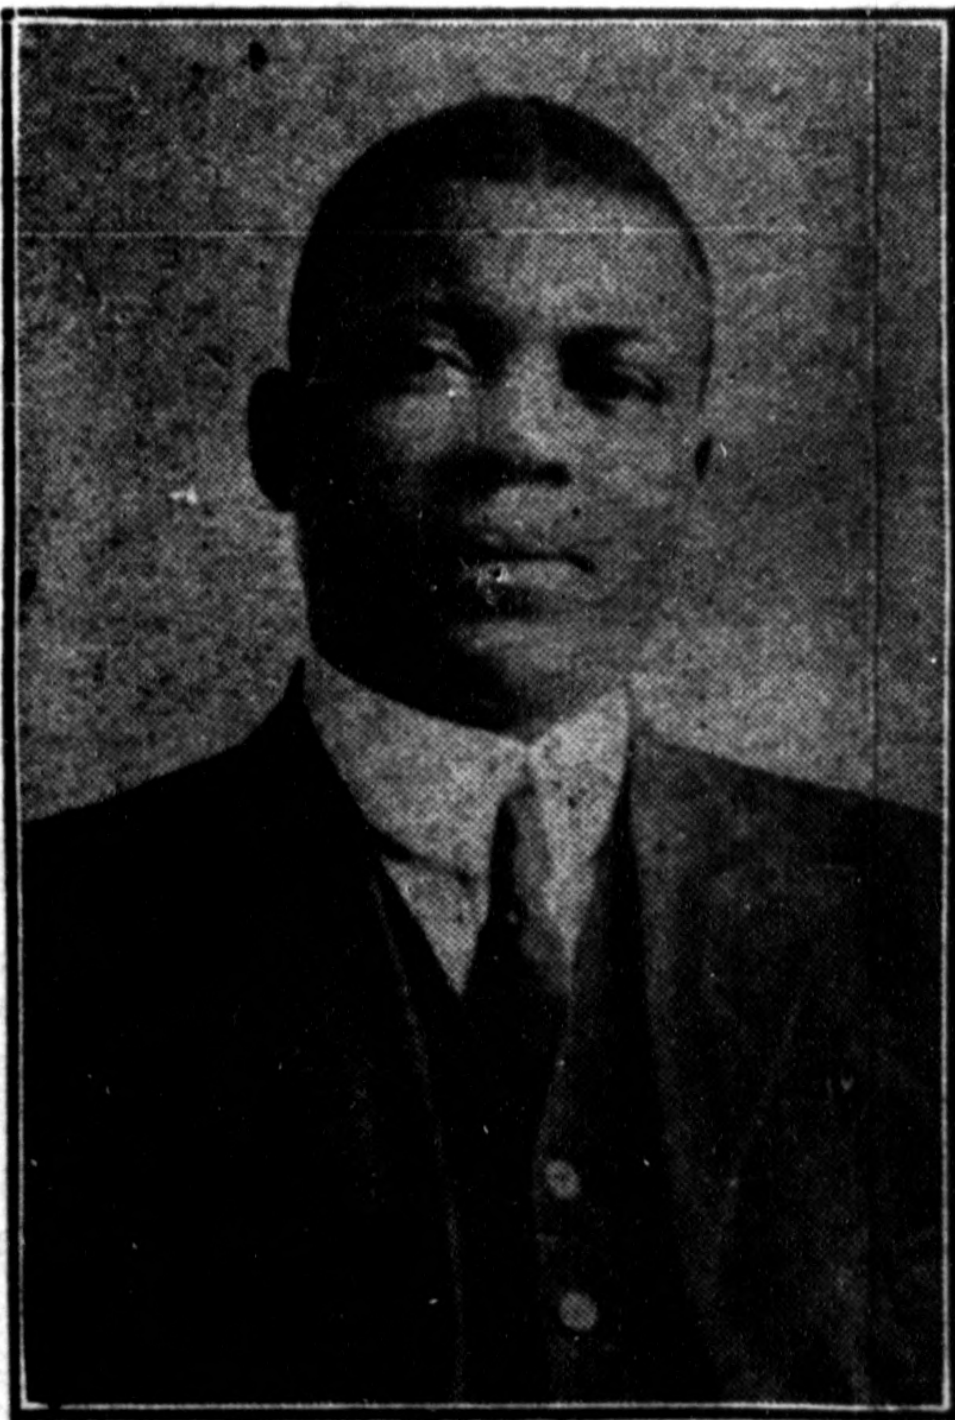

A train bearing two "Special Pullmans" will arrive in St. Paul via Northwestern, bearing Maj. R. R. Jackson and F. C. Leland with his Chicago Leland Giants, also their relatives and friends who will visit St. Paul for the World's Championship Games at Lexington Park.

The "Gophers."—Alex Tucker.
