Oh! You Marcos.

Special to THE FREEMAN.

The Marcos were against one of the fastest white teams in this city, the Peerless. Everything seemed to be in favor of the white boys until the six in favor of the white boys until the six inning, when the Marcos got in three runs, making the score even. Both teams tried in every line of hitting to secure a run until the close of the twelfth inning, but as each side was matched equally the hits were useless. The contest was interesting and their work was spectacular, all the way through. Sloane pitched wonderful ball and he was not in the least troubled, all he wanted was support. The Marcos and Peerless play the city championship next Sunday, so come out. Minor and Allen, umpires.
