BASEBALL AND FOOTBALL

When and How It Will Happen
During the Season at Chicago.

The news was received here October 2 that "Rube" Foster's Leland Giants had defeated the Bridgewoods, champions of New York City, 21 to 7. They left New York for Jacksonville, Fla., where they will play this week, after which they will sail for Havana, Cuba.

They will play a series of games that will begin October 8. The Lelands broke the world's record of playing eighteen straight games with professional teams and winning all of them. It was declared in New York that they were the greatest semi-professional ball players that have ever come East. All the boys are in the best of spirits. They will be in the South all winter.

CHICAGO GIANTS LOSE.

The Chicago Giants had another unlucky day last Sunday by losing to the Spaldings, the lowest team in standing in the City League. It was Percy Skillin's fine form that decided the success of the game. The white boys did not allow the Giants a semblance of a hit until the seventh inning, when Wright put a two-bagger to right after two were out. The Spaldings made two scores in the sixth inning and that told the tale. The Giants played a good game, but Taylor was outpitched by Skillen. The last of the City League games will be played on next Sunday, and the Chicago Giants will finish second. They go to California in November to represent a league team at Los Angeles.

The score was 2 to 0.

The Kansas City (Kan.) Giants and the Kansas City (Mo.) Blues, of the American Association, will open a series of games Sunday, October 9, at Association Park. These games will be hotly contested as the Blues have always been a little shy of the Kansas boys. The series will be the closing of the season for the Giants. The entire team will winter in Kansas City, Kans., Mr. Smith having secured positions for all his boys.

BASEBALL IN NEW ORLEANS.

The New Orleans Eagles have closed the season, not losing one game on our home grounds since we returned home, July 25.

Out of the last 23 games we played we won 22 losing the one game to Mobile in Mobile.

All the regulars have been playing ball as good as any manager could expect.

Clark, formerly of St. Louis Giants, and Illinois Giants, tried hard three times to stop those flying Eagles, but he found it impossible.

The New Orleans Eagles are composed of some of the classiest ball players in the South, such men as Bud Wilson, Butch Hill, Kid Bantholum and Captain Walker being on the team. These men have shown the class against every team they have met.

Mr. Frank Palambo, owner of the New Orleans Eagles, says he will have one of the finest colored teams in the South next spring.

All teams who intend coming South next spring should write to Mr. Frank Palambo or Frank Walker, who, by the way, has been made managing captain for 1911. His address is 8838 Oak street, New Orleans.

On September 25 a large crowd of enthusiastic fans turned out to see the last game of the season between the Eagles and the All-Stars. Babe Lee was on the mound for the Eagles and Robinson- ex-New York Black Sox, pitched for the All-Stars.

The feature of the game was the delivery of Babe Lee. This fellow is some pitcher, only 17 years of age, and he held the All-Stars down to four hits.

Joseph played first in the place of Captain Walker, who is out of the game on account of a bad knee.

Out of four times up Joseph got three hits, two being two-baggers.

Bartholomew also played a great game at short, and accepted eleven chances without an error.

It looked as if the Stars would win the last game until the eighth inning. when Bud Wilson came up to bat with two men on bases and as usual cleared 'em.

Final score:
All-Stars	.....	0	2	0	0	0	1	0	0	0—3
N. O. Eagles	.....	2	1	0	0	0	0	4	0	*—7
Batteries—Robinson and Lewis; Babe Lee and Wiley.
Umpire—Ridgely.
