

The first player signed up for the new Boston outlaw club of the United States Baseball League is Billy Thompson of Concord, N. H., a colored catcher, who has been for several years with the Cuban and Philadelphia Giants. This new league which has recently been organized takes occasion to mention that it does not draw the color line.

The Bridgeport Evening Farmer, Bridgeport, CT

Thursday, January 20, 1910, Page 7, Column 2